

Saskatchewan Breeders Barrel Bonanza

Rules and Guidelines:

It is the responsibility of both the Breeder and Contestant to read the following rules.

Breeders:

1. Nomination fees per breeder are : $100.00 for up to three stallions, $50.00 for each additional stallion.
2. Stallions must be nominated by the stallion owner or lessee.
3. Registered stallions with multiples owners will be eligible providing one of the owners was a Saskatchewan resident, and the stallion was standing in Saskatchewan at the time the dam of the offspring was bred.
4. Leased stallions would be eligible if they were leased by a Saskatchewan resident and were standing in Saskatchewan at the time the dam of the offspring was bred. Different leases each year would be required to nominate that stallion in order to qualify the offspring born the following year.
5. To verify proper ownership of leased stallions the following must be provided: photocopy of registration papers, breeding certificates, lease agreement and/or affidavits verifying such.
6. Offspring of nominated stallions must be 6 years and under at the time of Barrel Bonanza
7. The Barrel Bonanza will be conducted on an annual basis (i.e. Nomination of stallions)
8. Deadline for stallion nominations will be 21 days prior to the Barrel Bonanza event.
9. Nomination fee must accompany the stallion nomination form.
10. 20% of stallion nomination fees will be used towards advertising for the stallion owners. Advertising for the stallion owner will be done at the discretion of the Barrel Bonanza committee. Every attempt will be made to get the most value for our dollar. This will include but not necessarily be limited to the following (advertised on the SBRA webpage, inclusion in the Finals Program, separate propaganda (brochures) available at finals).
11. Additional advertising will be done as per money available.
12. Stallions owned by a nominating ranch, and nominated into the Barrel Bonanza, as long as they meet the age and qualification requirements, will be eligible to compete in the Barrel Bonanza regardless of where the Stallion was born.

Contestants:

1. All horses, registered or grade, six years of age and under off a nominated stallion would qualify with the following documentation –
 - A. A photocopy of registration papers
 - B. Grade horses will require a signed affidavit (located on contestant registration form). This needs to be signed by both the breeder and the contestant.
2. Any misrepresentation of horses will result in immediate dismissal of both the horse and rider
3. Deadline for all paperwork will be 21 days prior to the Barrel Bonanza. This is not a commitment but an aid in administration. You will be required to make your official entry on The Entry Date of the SBRA Finals
4. Entry Fee is $40.00 per horse.
5. The Barrel Bonanza will consist of two runs in the 3D format at the SBRA Finals.
6. The payout will be as follows: 40% in the 1st and 2nd go rounds, and 20% for the aggregate. 1D – 40% 2D – 30% 3D – 30%. The Go-rounds will pay three places split, 50,30, 20, and the aggregate will pay to two places, split 60 ,40
7. Any protests must be made in writing with appropriate evidence indication misrepresentation or cheating by breeders/owners/contestant before the payout is made and must be accompanied by a fee of $50.00 payable to the SBRA. A portion of this fee will be returned if the protester is proven to be correct.
8. Any owner, rider, or breeder found to be guilty of misrepresentation or cheating in any way will have their membership revoked and be banned from participation in any ABRA event indefinitely.
9. All SBRA rules apply unless contradicted by the above in which case the above rules and guidelines must apply
10. In order to qualify to the Barrel Bonanza, you must be a member of the SBRA, and compete at a minimum of three SBRA approved jackpots as a horse and rider combination only,
